Investment strategy

These indices represent an active allocation to single commodities using quantitative strategies. The Fund allocates its exposures between such various indices in a dynamic and model driven way. In terms of assets, the Fund will mainly invest in bonds or money market instruments and concludes a TRS to gain exposure to the above mentioned commodity indices.

Investment goal

The Fund is actively managed with reference to an index and seeks to outperform its benchmark (Hedged in EUR), the Bloomberg Commodity Ex-Agriculture and Livestock Capped Total Return Index, by getting exposure to commodities indices.
