OBJECTIVES AND INVESTMENT POLICY

Principal assets traded:

1.As part of the implementation of the investment strategy:

- Shares - and/or equity-like securities - of companies in developed countries and/or emerging market companies, of any capitalisation;
- Futures contracts (futures, options and swaps) on a regulated or over-the-counter market. These products are used for exposure, arbitrage or hedging purposes. The underlying assets of these derivatives may be:

* Shares and/or equity-like securities

* Stock indices

* Mutual fund units

* Foreign currency, for hedging purposes

- Securities lending transactions;

- Exchange traded notes on stock indices;

- Units of undertakings for collective investment.

2.In the context of liquidity management:

- Money market instruments, whose short-term rating is at least A-2 at the time of purchase (or equivalent) by one of the rating agencies, issued by all types of issuers;

- Reverse repurchase and repurchase transactions;

- Securities borrowing transactions;

- Bonds and other debt securities, whose short-term rating is at least A-2 at the time of purchase (or equivalent) by one of the rating agencies, issued by all types of issuers;

- Transferable securities or money market instruments equivalent to those described above, deposits or cash.

Investment strategy:

The fund seeks to achieve capital growth by investing in the principal assets traded and to outperform the benchmark index.

In order to achieve its management objective, the fund follows the "Equity Market Neutral" management style, which means that, depending on the investment opportunities it identifies and on the basis of quantitative and qualitative analyses, the Manager will simultaneously take long positions on shares that he believes, all things being equal, have the potential to increase in value and short positions on other shares. This style of management allows for limited net exposure to the equity market.

For more information on identifying investment opportunities and quantitative and qualitative analyses, please refer to the prospectus.

The Fund does not have a sustainable investment objective and does not specifically promote environmental and/or social characteristics.

This share class aims to reduce the effect of fluctuations in exchange rates between the reference currency of the sub-fund EUR and the GBP (the currency in which the share class is denominated). This reduces the foreign exchange risk but does not eliminate it entirely.

The fund may use derivative products both for investment and hedging purposes (hedging against unfavourable future financial events).

Benchmark: Capitalised €STR (Euro Short Term Rate)

The fund is actively managed and the investment process implies referring to a benchmark index.

Definition of the index:

The €STR is the short term rate in euros that reflects unsecured overnight borrowing costs in euros for banks in the euro zone.

Use of the index:

- for the purpose of performance comparisons,

- for the purpose of calculating performance fees for certain share classes.

Redemption of shares: On request, every day, in Luxembourg.

Allocation of income: Reinvestment.

Recommendation: This fund may not be suitable for investors who plan to withdraw their capital within 3 years.

RISK AND REWARD PROFILE

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

• The risk level reflects the maximum between, on the one hand, the fund's historical volatility and, on the other, the volatility equivalent to that of the risk limit adopted by the fund. The volatility indicates the extent to which the value of the fund may fluctuate upwards or downwards.

• The historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.

• The indicated category may vary over time.

• The lowest category does not mean "risk-free".

• There is no guarantee or mechanism to protect the capital.

The investor needs to be aware of the following significant risks which are not necessarily adequately taken into account by the indicator:

• Arbitrage risk: The fund may use the technique consisting in taking advantage of price differences (recorded or anticipated) between two securities/sectors/markets/currencies. If such arbitrage transactions perform unfavourably (a rise in selling transactions and/or fall in buying transactions), the net asset value of the fund may fall.

• Counterparty risk: The fund may use OTC derivative products and these may represent a counterparty risk, i.e. the inability of the counterparty to honour its commitments to the fund. This counterparty risk could be fully or partially hedged by the receipt of guarantees.

• Risk related to financial derivative instruments: their use implies risk associated with the underlying assets and can accentuate downward movements via the resulting leverage effect. Hedging strategies using derivatives may not be perfect. Some derivatives may be difficult to value under exceptional markets circumstances.

• Sustainability risk: refers to any event or situation in the environmental, social or governance domain that could affect the performance and/or the reputation of the issuers in the portfolio. The sustainability risk may be specific to the issuer, depending on its activities and practices, but it may also be due to external factors.
