Franklin K2 Electron Global UCITS Fund

Class EB PF (acc) EUR-H2 • ISIN LU2039785535 • A sub-fund of Franklin Templeton Alternative Funds

The management company is Franklin Templeton International Services S.à r.l.

Objectives and Investment Policy

The Franklin K2 Electron Global UCITS Fund (the “Fund”) aims to provide a positive return in any market conditions (absolute return) over the medium to long term.

The Fund pursues an actively managed investment strategy and invests mainly in:

- equity and equity-related securities issued by companies of any size in the infrastructure and global utility sectors located in North America, Europe and Asia-Pacific, and to a lesser extent in Latin America, including emerging markets
- derivatives for hedging, efficient portfolio management and investment purposes

The Fund can invest to a lesser extent in:

- cash-settled structured products or exchange traded notes
- units of other mutual funds and exchange-traded security-linked notes (limited to 10% of assets)

The investment team uses fundamental research and sector analysis to select individual securities that it believes will perform unusually well or unusually poorly, and takes long positions on the former and short positions on the latter. Long positions benefit from an increase in the price of the underlying instrument or asset class, while short positions benefit from a decrease in that price.

Benchmarks: MSCI World Utilities Sector Index and HFRX Equity Hedge Index. The benchmarks are used solely as a reference for Investors to compare against the Fund's performance. The Fund is not obliged to hold any of the benchmarks constituents and may indeed invest up to 100% of its net assets outside these benchmarks.

You may request the sale of your shares on any Luxembourg business day.

The income received from the Fund's investments is accumulated with the result of increasing the value of the shares.

For further information on the Objectives and Investment Policy of the Fund, please refer to the section “Fund Information, Objectives and Investment Policies” of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Alternative Funds.

Terms to Understand

Derivatives: Financial instruments whose characteristics and value depend on the performance of one or more underlying assets, typically securities, indexes, currencies or interest rates.

Emerging markets: Countries whose economy, stock market, political situation and regulatory framework are not fully developed.

Equity securities: Securities that represent an ownership stake in a company.

Hedging: A strategy for totally or partially offsetting particular risks such as those arising from fluctuations in share prices, currencies or interest rates.

Long position, short position: A long position benefits when an investment's price goes up; a short position benefits when the price goes down.

Risk and Reward Profile

What does this indicator mean and what are its limits?

This indicator is designed to provide you with a measure of the price movement of this share class based on historical behavior.

Historical data may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean risk free.

As the share class has no sufficient historical data available, simulated data based on a representative portfolio model or benchmark have been used instead.

Why is the Fund in this specific category?

The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing primarily in equity and equity-related securities of companies active in the global utility sector worldwide, as well as in derivatives. Such securities and investment instruments have historically been subject to price movements that may occur suddenly due to market or company-specific factors, or fluctuations in currency markets. As a result, the performance of the Fund can fluctuate considerably over time.

Risks materially relevant not adequately captured by the indicator:

Counterparty risk: the risk of failure of financial institutions or agents (when serving as a counterparty to financial contracts) to perform their obligations, whether due to insolvency, bankruptcy or other causes.

Emerging markets risk: the risk related to investing in countries that have less developed political, economic, legal and regulatory systems, and that may be impacted by political/economic instability, lack of liquidity or transparency, or safekeeping issues.

Equity risk: prices of equities may be affected by factors such as economic, political, market, and issuer-specific changes. Such changes may adversely affect the value of the equities regardless of company-specific performance.

Derivative Instruments risk: the risk of loss in an instrument where a small change in the value of the underlying investment may have a larger impact on the value of such instrument. Derivatives may involve additional liquidity, credit and counterparty risks.

Foreign Currency risk: the risk of loss arising from exchange-rate fluctuations or due to exchange control regulations.

For a full discussion of all the risks applicable to this Fund, please refer to the “Risk Considerations” section of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Alternative Funds.
