What is this product?

Type: Nordasia.com is a UCITS fund established in Germany.

Term: The Fund has an unlimited term. We are entitled to terminate the management of the Fund, subject to a notice period of at least six months, via an announcement in the Federal Gazette (Bundesanzeiger) and also in the annual or semi-annual report.

We may suspend the redemption of units if exceptional circumstances so require, taking into account the interests of investors.

Objectives: The aim of the Fund Management is to achieve an appropriate performance taking into account the risks taken and the development of the capital markets. The investment markets are invested in via permitted assets in accordance with the investment conditions.

The investments are actively managed.

The Fund is classified in accordance with Article 6 of the Disclosure Regulation.

To achieve its objective, the Fund shall invest at least 51% of the value of the Fund in securities of companies whose registered office, headquarters or business focus is in the Asia-Pacific region, including Australia and New Zealand; at least 51% of the value of the Fund in equities; at least 51% of the value of the Fund in securities of such companies that generate at least part of their turnover and/or profits through the creation or use of an internet infrastructure. The economic activities of these companies include, for example, internet access solutions, search services, user interface manufacturing, hardware development, security system development, online direct marketing services etc., as well as the distribution and marketing of goods, services and other items online; maximum 10% in interest-bearing securities; maximum 30% in convertible bonds and warrant bonds, as well as participation certificates.

This can be a temporary concentration on individual market segments or tight market values as well as frequent portfolio reallocations. The Fund may also invest in additional asset classes, currencies, regions and assets in accordance with the investment conditions and may use derivative transactions for hedging, speculative purposes and efficient portfolio management. In addition, the Fund may invest in accordance with the "General and Special Conditions of Investment".

The Fund does not track a securities index, nor does the company base itself on a fixed benchmark for the Fund. At its own discretion, the Fund Management actively decides on the selection of assets, taking into account analyses and valuations of issuers of securities as well as economic and political developments. It aims to achieve positive performance.

Intended retail investors: This product is intended for investors with a basic knowledge and with no or limited experience of investing in funds, seeking to increase the value of their investment over the recommended holding period and who are able absorb losses up to the investment amount.

Redemption and dealing: The shares in the Fund can generally be redeemed on valuation days.

Distribution policy: The Fund income remains in the Fund and increases the value of the shares.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

RISK INDICATOR

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for six years.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 4 out of 7, which is a medium risk class. The risk of potential losses from future performance is therefore classified as medium. In very unfavourable market conditions, it is possible that the ability to execute your redemption requests will be compromised.

Additional risks: Market liquidity risk could amplify the variation of product performances.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

Beside the risks included in the risk indicator, other risks may affect the Product's performance. Further information can be found in the prospectus or the investor information document of Nordasia.com.

What are the costs?

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

COSTS OVER TIME

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you keep the product and how well the product performs. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

We have assumed:

- In the first year you would get back the amount that you invested (0% annual return). For the other holding periods, we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate scenario.
- EUR 10,000 is invested.

Example investment EUR 10,000

Scenarios	If you exit after
	1 year	6 years*
Total costs	€672	€2,142
Annual Cost Impact	6.8%	2.9%

* Recommended holding period.

* This illustrates how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example, it shows that if you exit at the end of the recommended holding period, your average return per year is projected to be 9.09% before costs and 6.23% after costs.

These figures include the maximum distribution fee that the person selling you the product may charge (5.00% of amount invested/EUR 500). This person will inform you of the actual distribution fee.

If you are invested in this product as part of an insurance contract, the costs shown do not include additional costs that you could potentially bear.
